FACTS

8. At all relevant times, the Plaintiff rented an apartment at 89 East 42nd Street, Brooklyn, New York 11225, and resided within.

9. On or about July 25, 2008, the New York State Office of Children & Family Services had informed the Plaintiff that it found a report of maltreatment, against the plaintiff, made by Defendant Ruiz and Defendant ACS, to be unfounded.

10. The said report was made on May 4, 2000, however, in July 2000, defendant Stallings, a supervisor at Defendant ACS and defendant Ruiz had informed the plaintiff that the Defendant ACS's case against the plaintiff had been found to be unsubstantiated by Defendant ACS, and that the case had been closed.

11. Defendants Stallings and Robinson were involved in the preparation and supervision of the said report.

12. The report, and the information given to the Plaintiff that the case had been closed were false, and because of their knowledge of the lack of any legitimate cause or justification for such false reporting and recording, were intentional, malicious, reckless and in bad faith.

13. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' actions, Plaintiff suffered, and continues to suffer, from various ills, including mental and emotional depression.

14. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' actions, Plaintiff suffered and continues to suffer, mental anguish, reputational injuries, psychological and emotional distress, and physical pain and suffering, some or all of which may be permanent.

16. At no time did Plaintiff commit any offenses against the laws of New York City and/or State for which such prosecution should be carried out against her. And at no time did the Plaintiff commit any illegal acts, or engage in any conduct which in any way justified the unlawful actions of the Defendants.

17. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' actions, Plaintiff was deprived of rights, privileges and immunities under the Fifth and the Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and the laws of the City of New York and the State of New York.

18. Defendant City of New York, as a matter of policy and practice, has with deliberated indifference, failed to properly sanction or discipline officers, including the defendants, in this case, for violations of the constitutional rights of citizens, thereby causing officers, including defendants in this case, to engage in unlawful conduct to the extent that officers continuously refused to carry out any credible investigations before prosecuting individuals, and the Plaintiff in this case.

19. Defendant City of New York, as matter of policy and practice, or custom, intentionally, knowingly, negligently, and recklessly failed to instruct, supervise, control, on a continuing basis, Defendant officers in their duties to refrain from unlawful and malicious prosecution. The said City of New York, who are aware of, and subsequently concealed violations of the constitutional rights of citizens by officers, has encouraged ACS officers, including Defendants in this case, to engage in unlawful conduct.

20. The actions of Defendants, acting under color of State law, deprived Plaintiff of her rights, privileges and immunities under the laws and Constitution of the United States; in particular, the rights to be free from malicious prosecution.

21. Within ninety days after the claim in this Complaint arose, a written claim was filed upon the City of New York, and at least thirty-days have elapsed since the service of the Notice of Claim and the adjustment or the payment of the claim has been neglected or refused.
